ITEM 3 DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Mr. Draper, Investment Adviser Representative, does not have any legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client’s or prospective client’s evaluation.

ITEM 4 OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Mr. Draper has been a licensed insurance agent since 2013. He is licensed to sell life, health, annuities, and long-term care insurance. Mr. Draper spends approximately 2 hours per week selling insurance products.

Through his work as an insurance agent Mr. Draper is eligible to receive commission on the sale of insurance products. This additional compensation presents a conflict of interest because it creates an incentive to recommend certain products to clients over others that may not offer similar compensation to the IAR.

To mitigate or remedy these conflicts of interest, the nature of the associations is fully disclosed to the client before effecting transactions.

We will explain the specific costs associated with any recommended investments with you upon request. Additionally, you have the option to purchase investment and insurance products through other brokers or agents who are not affiliated with us. You are not required to do business with Mr. Keys in any of these capacities.

Mr. Draper is a real estate investor. He spends approximately 15 hours a month to maintain and operate the properties.

ITEM 5 ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

Other than as noted in Item 4 above, Mr. Draper does not receive any additional compensation for providing investment advice beyond the fee-based compensation he received through our Firm.

ITEM 6 SUPERVISION

Tyron Draper is an Investment Adviser Representative of Beacon Capital Management. Mr. Draper is responsible for providing advice to clients. He is supervised by Dan Benson, Executive Vice President. Mr. Benson can be reached at 615-224- 9794. We supervise Mr. Draper by requiring that he adhere to our processes and procedures as described in our firm's Compliance Manual and Code of Ethics and through monitoring his activities accordingly.
