Item 3. DISCIPLINARY INFORMATION

Registered investment advisers are required to disclose all material facts regarding any legal or disciplinary events that would be material to your evaluation of each supervised person providing investment advice. Mr. Maxson was previously employed as a Registered Representative of a Broker-Dealer. In this capacity, there were two (separate) arbitration claims filed against his former employer, in which Mr. Maxson was not named as a respondent. Both arbitration claims pertained to sales of alternative investment and the firm’s supervision practices. Both claims were settled by the prior firm.

Item 4.      OTHER BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

Mr. Maxson has been a licensed insurance agent since 2001. He is licensed to sell life, health, annuities, and long-term care insurance. He approximately spends about 30% of his time on these activities. From time to time, he may offer clients advice or products from those activities and the Firm will earn compensation for him selling such insurance products, including insurance products he sells to you. Compensation earned by the Firm for these products is separate from the advisory fees it receives from you.

These practices may present a conflict of interest because it gives the Firm an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation amount received. This conflict is mitigated by the fact that Beacon has adopted a code of ethics that requires all associated persons to place the interests of clients first. We will explain the specific costs associated with any recommended insurance products and investments with you. Additionally, you have the option to purchase investment and insurance products through other brokers or agents who are not affiliated with us. You are not required to do business with Mr. Maxson in any of these capacities.

Mr. Maxson also owns commercial real estate that he rents.

Item 5.      ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

As noted in Item 4 above, Mr. Maxson receives additional compensation for his work as an insurance agent and his commercial real estate, beyond the fee-based compensation he receives providing investment advice through our Firm.

Item 6.      SUPERVISION

Mr. Maxson is an Investment Adviser Representative of Beacon. He is responsible for providing advice to clients. He is supervised by Dan Benson, Executive Vice President. Mr. Benson can be reached at 615-224-9794. We supervise Mr. Maxson by requiring that he adhere to our processes and procedures as described in our Firm's Compliance Manual and Code of Ethics and through monitoring his activities accordingly.
